

Resources

If you're opting out of Family Life Education, how will your child learn about marriage and sexuality?

To help you with this task, parentandchild.org reviews textbooks, courses, online resources, and publications that provide information your child needs in clear, understandable terms while encouraging parental guidance on marriage, faith, and sexual ethics.

Faith-based resources

Our K-12 foundational curriculum equips teachers and parents with church approved tools for forming boys and girls in their God-given identity. REVEALED/ROOTED brings to life Pope St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body in the context of our modern world. Through this curriculum, children gain an understanding of who God is, who they are as image-bearers of God, male or female, and how they fit into the world.

This website supports the RCL Benziger Family Life K-8 Family Life program. It provides children with a wholesome understanding of human sexuality based upon Catholic Church moral principles. Working with their parents, children develop better communication skills, healthy family relationships and a formation in chaste living.
